

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Mary Campbell began her career with the state of South Dakota at the Human Services Center as an intern during the summer of 1990, and her excellent performance led to her permanent employment as a Speech Pathologist beginning in October 1990; and,

Whereas, Mary is an inspiration to others through her dedication to her patients, striving to reduce stigma, and to increase understanding for the unique speech, language, and hearing needs of those in her care who are facing mental health and chemical dependency diagnoses; and,

Whereas, Mary has consistently projected commitment to her profession, mentoring for assigned students, and genuine concern for all colleagues involved with providing the highest quality treatment and services for patients; and,

Whereas, Mary is a loyal wife to her husband, Mike, of 36 years, a caring mother to their children, Katie and Sarah, and a devoted grandmother to her granddaughter, Emma; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments and years of service of this special South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 8, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in wishing her good health and happiness in her well deserved retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
